

The deep ones with one word titles

'Answers'

Where do I go for the answers

To my questions? I mean, you go

To the store for groceries, you get

Friends when you make them but there

Really is no place with all the answers from

Which you can take them. Now, I have another Question. From where do I get my answers, then?

I ponder this question, I give it lots of thought. Maybe

I've just been looking where the answers are not. So my Soul search, I once again begin. But not soon after, I realized

Something. Maybe I should have been looking within my own self.

From now on, that's where I will go, for there is nothing that the heart

Does not know. So off go my questions into the wind and if you have any More questions, just remember. Simply go.....To where the answers begin.

Smile

If only you knew the power of a smile.

a smile is the difference between loving it and hating this. If only you knew what a smile can do.

a smile can change someone's day for the better, even if it is just a simple gesture. If only you knew... well if you're smiling at this then I guess you do. The power of a single smile can change you and me.

The power of all our smiles is all the world needs. So you smile at me and I'll smile at you. After all, if what I say is true, don't you want some of the power of the universe, too?

The ones that took me ages to come up with

‘Only Birds Know’

When birds fly by, I swear they wink. Like they know many untold secrets. Secrets of magical places far away. Places that words alone can not convey. They simply take a breath of fresh air and go along with their day, perfectly content to know everything without even knowing it. All the hopes and dreams of the world. All the stories of the wind and the beauty of the moon. And when the time comes, hopefully sometime soon, you'll look at the sky and see them too. They'll be winking, I swear they do.

Ode To Friendship

They say you learn from experience so let me tell. Life is too short to spend it without a friend. Friendship is the hardest thing to explain. It's too beautiful for words. Friendship is like the sun, without it you feel so cold. When you have it, you don't ever wanna give it back. Friendship is like walking through the dark but you call out to each other and light each other's way. When you have friendship, your whole world changes. Friendship puts a smile on your face and a new perspective of the world in place. Friendship is a light that you search for and if you have it, promise you'll never let it escape. Experiencing it everyday is like an amazing electric feeling, that's hard to name. Friendship is the joy of the universe. And can I just say, Hello to my friends.

You're amazing in every way.
