

Ode to Lemonade

Oh Lemonade,
You make me so happy when I see you
The Heavens above call when I look at you

Oh Lemonade,
In the summer you bring me
You bring me to your sweet, flavorful, and yellow juices

Oh Lemonade,
You are cold when I am hot,
Refreshing when I am done
My favorite drink of all

Oh Lemonade,
I lick my lips when I see your yellowish color
It doesn't matter, if you have pulp or you don't

Oh Lemonade,
You make my life, so much better
