

Rebellious Rachel

She has qualities considered contemptuous

She isn't afraid of authority

Ignorant and disrespectful

No wonder she's a minority.

She doesn't do homework

Instead, she vapes in the bathroom.

She doesn't care, she wants the thrill,

Smoking weed in motel rooms.

No wonder she failing her classes

She isn't even there

Surprisingly her classmates are worried about her health

However, she's too high to care.

Bullshitting school, forgetting about life

For all she could care was not losing her Juul

It was 50 dollars, too expensive to keep replacing

Constantly questioning "Where's my Juul?"

When she isn't dosing herself up with drugs

She likes to run,

It allows her to be free for all her problems

She can't with her damaged lungs.

Despite her work ethic, she works

Only to pay her for Juul Pods though.

If only her parents actually were there to care

If only she wasn't in their shadow.
