Kites
Chant

One little kite, up in the blue,
Along came another, then there were two.
Two little kites, over the tree.
Along came another, then there were three.
Three little kites, watch them soar.
Along came another, then there were four.
Four little kites, they act so alive,
Next came the last one, and then there were five.

Spring Song
(Tune: The Farmer in the Ditch)

The sun is shining bright
The sun is shining bright.
Oh how I love the Warmth.
The sun is shining bright.

The rain is falling down,
The rain is falling down.
Oh how I love the sound.
The rain is falling down.

The flowers start to bloom.
The flowers start to bloom.
Oh how I love the sight.
The flowers start to bloom.

Build a rainy-day hideaway. What was more fun than a hideaway or fort when you were little? When April showers put the brakes on backyard play, ask if your children would like to build a special hideaway. Siblings can work together, or you can collaborate with your child. Have the kids build a tent by draping old sheets or blankets over furniture. Once they make their tent, they can play in it, eat lunch inside it, or read books together with a flashlight. (For extra motor skills practice, ask the children to help you put the tent away at the end of the day. They can help you fold the sheets by finding a corner and bringing it to you.)
